Our public school opened last Monday the 23, under very favorable auspices. Miss Dora Johns is our teacher and from the way and manner that she has started off with her work all of our pupils and patrons are anticipating for is the best school we have had for a considerable time.

All of our ground has been kept in fine condition for our crops to grow for the last ten or twelve days and all of the corn looks line and the potate crop is a bumper, as is also the oats

Coal mining and the oil operations are the chief industries just now and two more oil strikes have been made, one on the land of Arthur Blanken-ship and one on the land of Marion Hurd. Our coal haulers are now delivering coal for the well No. 2, being drilled on the land of Tona Maltesta near Fallsburg.

Farmers are very busily engaged with their oats harvest.

Our Sunday school is still progress-ing nicely and the delegates who at-tended the Sunday School Convention at Louisa say that it was the finest affair they ever witnessed.
